Dear Sir:

Replying to the final rejection of October 18, 2002, please enter the very minor amendments to the claims that merely eliminate redundancy and improve clarity, without introducing any new issue.

In The Claims

[Please amend claim 28 as follows:]

28. (Amended) In a driver-operated vehicle provided with a steering wheel region, vehicle radio entertainment deck components, and a vehicle cellular radio telephone for use by a driver in the vehicle, apparatus for enabling said driver, while seated at the steering wheel region of the vehicle, to access a predetermined component of the entertainment deck and also to access the cellular radio telephone, all in a diversionless manner with full attention to driving, said apparatus comprising separate control switches for turning said components on and off; a further control switch for enabling the activating and deactivating of the cellular radio telephone; and voice-controlled switching means programmed with a plurality of predesignated voice commands for operation of said predetermined component and also of the
